

I'm outraged that Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election will be allowed. This does not serve the public interest. As holders of a precious broadcasting licenses their actions are infringing upon their responsibilities by promoting such a blatant partisan effort. This is another example of big media stifling real journalism and clearly violating any concept of fairness

Sebastien Grouard